We strongly advocate 'Il Mangiar sano' - Healthy Eating - ensuring that only pure vegetable oil or olive oil is used in our cooking and not animal fats. Furthermore we utilise only the best fresh produce, which along with all our fresh fish, is carefully selected from the wholesale market. Healthy eating dishes are nutritiously balanced to be lower in saturated fat, sodium and calorie levels. Created with today's life styles and concerns in mind, the freshest ingredients are carefully prepared to conserve their natural nutrients.

Please do not be afraid to try new dishes, and remember that real Italian cooking is very simple, very healthy and of course very palatable.
